Junior

Dear Suzy!!!

Your eyes are like the dew drops
Your cheeks are like a rose
The color of a cherry
Do the color of your nose.

Yours lips are like a ruby
Your hair is soft as down
The smile you have, becomes you
Except when its a frown.

Love = (so to speak)

WINNIE SUE BLACK

W.S.B.

Dear Winnie Sue, Winnie
some call you Winnie some call you Sue, they're both two of my favorite names so do you mind if I call you both of them?
It was so nice and sweet of you to reserve me this page, but then you are just naturally a sweet and swell girl. I remember particularly that night I came to B. S. U. with Bea - you were so nice and thoughtful then. I've always wanted to come back. may I, sometime?
Hasn't it been fun this year? We've worked harder and had a better time doing it. Geometry was the only class we had together but it was lots of fun. Then we had Miss Setzer's study hall and I think Miss Greever is swell, don't you. Glee Club together. Glee Club's pretty nice too.
Winnie Sue, always stay like you are now - you're one of the nicest girls in H. H. S. and I'd love for you to stay that way forever. You're smart and poised too. all that adds up to something rather Wonderful! Stick to it. Best wishes!

Always a friend,
Nancy

Foreword

THE SENIOR CLASS OF 1941 presents the HICKORY LOG to you—the students of our high school. Using an informal style in this sketch of work and play, we have endeavored to picture each phase of your high school life—not only in the classroom, but also in the athletic, social, and cultural realms.

May these pages portray your experiences so vividly that as you thumb through this LOG in years to come, each page may awaken cherished memories of your years at Hickory High.

EDITOR.

Dedication

THE growth of our city schools during the past twenty-five years is in a large measure due to the foresight and the untiring efforts of our superintendent. In recognition of his years of faithful and helpful service to the youth of Hickory, the Senior Class, with deep esteem and gratitude, dedicates this annual to DR. R. W. CARVER.

Sue,

I have missed you this year in my Spanish class. You are doing some fine work in school and we are proud of you.

Sincerely,

D. P. Hernandez

Class History

Our freshman class experienced no unusual difficulty and progressed slowly in an inconspicious role.

As sophomores the work was much harder, and we learned to use study halls to a better advantage. Already our outstanding qualities and talents were being recognized and utilized.

The junior year was a very important part of this history. A larger class had some real battles with public speaking and geometry. It was our duty to help run the school newspaper, and some of our members played on the various athletic teams. The crowning social function was our circus-styled Junior-Senior Dance.

In the final school year of the class of 1941, there was much accomplished. The athletic teams came through with flying colors. The band did fine work and made great progress. Seniors led clubs and organizations to successful goals. The Twig was as good as usual, and the LOG contains new features.

An outstanding class has run its course at Hickory High School. The thrill of graduation, the opportunities of college, the fortunes of life—none of these will ever dim our devotion or lessen our indebtedness to Hickory High School and to its faculty.

"TELEVISION, IN THE FUTURE WILL BE AS POPULAR AND AS WIDELY USED AS THE RADIO IS TODAY." SO READ THE LAST SENTENCE OF "THE FUTURE OF TELEVISION," WHICH I HAD BEEN READING. THE CLOCK ON THE WALL TOLD ME THAT I HAD TEN MINUTES OF LEISURE TIME SO, HAVING COMPLETED ALL STUDY, I RESTED MY HEAD ON THE DESK.

We had just bought a 1965 model television set and I could hardly wait to try out this latest model. Being alone, I turned off the lights and turned the switch. Within those few seconds while it was warming up I had a feeling of adventure.

"Ladies and Gentlemen, we have the pleasure this evening of presenting the first 'Television Travelogue' ever shown on a national hookup. The program is brought to you through the efforts of Scientist Henry Elliott, who has been collaborating with Samuel Hay for many years for the advancement of television. The first commentator who will identify the notables in the news will be L. C. Huffman. We now take you to our Television studios in Radio City. Take it away, L. C. Huffman!"

"Thank you, Bruce Hudson at N.B.C. Our first scene is laid here in New York City, where ceremonies for the dedication of the new Scientific Research Building are about to begin. Henry Lawrence and Paul Crump, oil magnates, made the building possible through their donations. Besides Mr. Lawrence and Mr. Crump on the speakers' platform is Dr. William Teague, head of the National Research Board, who will deliver the main address. This structure was designed by Neal McGinnis, and the Roy Wakefield Construction Company was in charge of the building. We regret that we must take leave of this celebration as it gets underway, but Joyce Moffitt is waiting in Florida to tell you about the Mid-winter fashion show. Here we come, Florida!"

"Here on the balmy shores of the Atlantic Ocean have gathered a group of the most famous fashion designers and the most outstanding fashion models to display the forthcoming spring fashions. Among the most prominent designers present are, seated left to right, Venita Willis of 'Clothes by Venita' fame, Mary Frances Witherspoon, Martha Setzer, and Martha Lee Sherrill. The fashion show has started, and the first model to appear is Margaret Yount, dressed in a red satin evening gown designed by Frances Miller, who is at present in her Paris studios. Miss Yount is followed closely by "Dot" Smith modeling a chiffon evening dress. Misses Faye Barger and Betty Hart from the Powers Studio in New York are modeling clothes for the tall and short girls respectively. Buyers from the leading department stores present include Margaret DeRhodes from 'Joe Fleming, Inc.,' Baltimore; Elinore Fresh of 'Lloyd Fisher & Co.,' Boston; Mozelle Hicks of the 'William Gantt Co.,' Chicago; and Doris Moser from 'Alvin and Cyril Bolch Co.,' Pittsburgh. This is Joyce Moffitt in Florida speaking from the Annual Mid-winter Fashion Preview turning you to Orville Deal in Hollywood. California, here we come!"

"This is Orville Deal in Hollywood, speaking to you from the set of 'Sky Bound,' a best-seller written by Edward Frye, now being filmed by R.K.O., with Stewart Deitz in charge of production. As we look around, we see Allen Fuller directing Earl Edwards, box office attraction, and Elizabeth Garrison, top-ranking star, in the opening scene of the picture. In the supporting cast are Cecile Deal, Dorothy Whitener, Virginia Hefner, Pauline Miller, Faye Reinhardt, Bill Whitener, Eugene Rhyne, and L. G. Jenkins. Behind the camera whom should we see but Albert Hamby, assisted by Albert Bright. Also appearing in the picture is Raymond Camp, former middle-weight champion. The music that you hear in the background is furnished by the Macon Henry Orchestra playing their theme song, written by Lester Key. Ladies and Gentlemen, we would like to tell you more about Hollywood, but as our time is growing short we must go on to Joe Deal at Randolph Field, Texas."

"Hello, America, the towering building you see in the backgorund is the Administration Building of Randolph Field, better known as 'The West Point of the Air.' We are stationed beside Hangar C and watching the preparation for the test flight of a new D-61 bomber built by the Vaughan Phillips Aeronautics Co. Lieutenant Eslie Miller, famed army test pilot, is scheduled to put the new plane through the paces. Among the army officers present are Captain Earl Settlemyre, Major Ralph Starnes, Lieutenant Tossey Reed, and Sergeant Ernest Roseman. As Lieutenant Miller lifts the mighty bomber into the air, we are forced to take leave of the exciting experiment for in a few minutes fourteen planes will take off from Cincinnati airport for a cross-country race. Sam Pope is located there now to tell you about it."

"You're just in time, Ladies and Gentlemen, to see the planes lined up for the takeoff. I have just been handed a program so I shall tell you some of the flyers in this the sixth race for the Austin Trophy, given by the Waitzell Austin Aircraft Corporation. Entering the race are: Glenn Barton, Iris Fullbright, Bill Busby, Leon Hahn, Alfred Bowman—who had the second best timing last year—Ruel Hunt, L. A. Seagle, and James Steele. Against this group of air men only three women are competing—Elva Shuford, winner in the 1962 women's division race, Florence Smith, and Eva Lackey. As the flyers take off, one blue Taylor craft seems to have some motor trouble; Cecil Hallman, chief mechanic, is hurrying out towards it. Upon close inspection we see that the plane is piloted by Jackson Whisnant, late entrant in the race. Except for the one delay, the planes, as you can see, are all off the ground. Now that they are gone, the main attraction is the number of well-known spectators. To the right we see Nancy Cole, leader of the popular all-girl orchestra, with her vocalist, Margaret Salvo. Also with her are some of her musicians—Cathleen Campbell, Dorothy Lewis, Lucy Starnes, Eunice Beach, and Mary Lou Randle. This is Sam Pope at the Cincinnati Municipal Airport, saying 'Farewell' and taking you now to Salt Lake City where the National Association of Newspaper and Magazine Publishers Convention is being held. George Beaman is waiting there to tell you about it. O. K., George Beaman!"

"Ladies and Gentlemen, I am speaking to you from the new Armory here in Salt Lake City where at this very moment Albert Allran, president of the NANMP, is presiding over the first business meeting of the convention. The other officers present at the convention are Evelyn Herman, editor of McCall's, vice-president; Kyle Carpenter of the Miami Daily Star, secretary; and Mary Kathryn Frye, editor of The Woman, treasurer. Glancing through the crowd attending, we see Doris Bolick, Evelyn Abee, Ethel Day, and Julia Brookshire, all from the staff of the Woman's Home Companion; Dora Jean Hutto, Opal Jones, Charlotte Gragg, and Evelyn Frye, representing the Ladies' Home Journal. From the Reader's Digest staff, we see Raymond Gantt, Paul Brock, Vernon Alley, Mary Pitts, and Edith Norris. Representing Life Magazine are Virginia Simpson, Louise and Lucille Starnes, and Bill Bowman. We would like to go on naming everyone here, but we are just in time for the presentation of the year's various awards. The president of the association has given the floor to the chairman of the award committee, Billy Reitzel, and now to the speaker's platform where Mr. Reitzel will take the microphone.

"The first award today is for the best news photography, which goes to Bernette Bowman of the Chicago Daily Tribune. The prize for the most efficient sports writer goes to Harry Dowda. Martha Rae Roseman was voted the best columnist of women's news. Betty Foster and Mary Lillian Warlick have been named as the best society editors, both of them being from the Charlotte Observer. Honorable mention in photography goes to Harvey Yount, Dock Price, and Elizabeth Helton. In sports writing the honor goes to Owen Sigmon and Edward Pope. Honorable mention for writers of women's news goes to Helen Alexander and Alice

Senior Prophecy

Barger. Society editors receiving honorable mention are Hilda Barger, Doris Baker, Elizabeth Holland, Myrtice Henkel. This is George Beaman in Salt Lake City returning you to the N.B.C. studios in New York and Bruce Hudson."

"Back again in New York we have come to the grand finale of the Travelogue—a visit to an average small American city where the average American lives a well-rounded, abundant life. This city is located in the heart of the Piedmont section of North Carolina and has been known for the past 25 years as the 'best balanced town in the United States.' And so now to WHKY in Hickory, where Rowell Sigmon of the announcing staff is waiting to tell you about his home town."

"Greetings, Americans, this is Rowell Sigmon in Hickory, the best balanced town in the United States. First, however, I'd like to tell you a little about WHKY. The manager of our station is Elwood Walton. As program manager we have Dorothy Brown, who is assisted by Peggy Cauble. Among our engineers are Paul Shipman and Shannon Lafone. WHKY is owned and operated by the Catawba Valley Broadcasting corporation. Officers of the corporation are W. R. (Pat) Patterson, president; Garland Miller vice-president; Thomas Reese, secretary; and Evelyn Pierce, treasurer.

"First, Ladies and Gentlemen, we are going to take you to the city hall where we shall show you our city government at work. Passing through the corridor we see Mayor Maynard Mangum and City Manager Hubert Bowman working together in the city manager's office. Now we go to the office of our Law Enforcement Division, but we find the desk of chief-of-police Gene Miller vacant. We are told that he is still a football enthusiast and is attending a Southern Conference meeting to present to the coaches his latest theory on how to coach football, basketball, and baseball. We were given the information by his secretary, Miss Mae Saine.

"Now we turn our attention to the industries of Hickory. The large building in the foreground is the Preslar Mill, largest hosiery mill in this section, which is owned by Jack and Charles Preslar. Hickory, in the past few years, has become a great furniture center. As president of the Hickory Chair Co., Frederick Putnam says 'Hickory has become a desirable location for the Southern Furniture Market.' Joe Mise, manager of the Better Homes Furnishing Company shares this opinion.

"The local newspaper, The Hickory Daily Record, plays an important role in making this the best balanced town in the United States. The Record has been Hickory's leading newspaper for the past fifty years. We take you now to their office where we will introduce the personnel to you. In the editor's office, you see Mr. John Gregory and his secretary, Miss Grace Williams, who are reading this afternoon's first edition off the press. Assistant-editor Nancy Yount is attending the NANMP convention in Salt Lake City witb Lucille Tuttle of the reporting staff. Miss Alice Sigmon is society editor, with Mary Stephens, Eileene Young and Nell Yount as reporters in the social field. Sports editor Ed Walker is busy writing up the Western Piedmont Conference news. His assistants, Glenn Seitz, John Hamby, and Ralph Robinson, are covering the Valdese Invitational Basketball Tournament now in progress. The attractive receptionist who has been so cordially showing us around the office is Miss Dorothy Knott. According to her, other general news reporters not present are Shirley Lemmond, Peary Lea Propst, Sybil Long, and Ned Whitener.

"Next we take you to the formal opening of Hickory's greatest department store, the Charles Haze Earp Company, which is said to be one of the most modern and complete department stores in North Carolina. On the first floor the clerks are Betty Jean Herman, Bernice Freeman, Lena Rose Giles, Hazel Winkler, Mamie Lee Roper, Mary Jo Leonard, and Kathryn Flowers. In the sportswear department on the second floor are Katherine High, Wanda Drumm, Katherine Denton, and Marvine Good. In the children's department are Lena Loflin, Wilma Rose McNeely, and Virginia Peile. The store's buyers who are now in Florida and New York are Violet Miller, Marie Pierce, Sarah Reedy, and Frances Marlow. As it reaches closing time here we wish to take this opportunity to visit the recently completed Morningside Memorial Hospital.

"Dr. Joseph Murphy, chief surgeon, says, 'Tbis institution is the best equipped hospital of its size in the South.' However, we are told that the great efficiency of this hospital is due largely to its competent staff of doctors and nurses, which include Cornelia Thomason, head nurse, Bessie Suther, laboratory technician, Margaret Tharpe and Roselyn Cline, dietitians; Dena Cohen, Geneva Crowder, Dorothy Parleir, Wilma Rink, nurses; and Drs. Ralph Reinhardt, James Campbell, Thomas Adkins, and Howell Fox. The attractive reception rooms which you have seen were done by interior decorators, Josephine Shuford and Betty Jo Sims.

"Another asset in the growth of Hickory as the best balanced town is Lenoir Rhyne College, whose campus you are now viewing. Mr. James Brown, president, says the enrollment has doubled within the past five years. Included on the faculty are Tyre Annas, Dean of Men; Thelma Sparks, Dean of Women; Professor of Music, Edward Taylor Ward; Professor of English, Worth Bolick; Professor of Chemistry, J. T. Funderburk; Director of Physical Education for Girls, Betty Sherrill; Athletic Director, Leonard Arndt; and Don Stafford and Foy Lail, football coaches. Mildred Winkler, Frances Deal, and Myrtle Duncan are office assistants.

"We now take you to Hickory's greatest pride, the recently constructed Community Center, located on Thirteenth Avenue, adjoining the high school grounds. This building was made possible entirely through contributions of civic clubs, business organizations, and individuals. The receptionist, Miss Margaret Adams, tells us that we are free to show you the entire building. First we will go to the Game Room. Amid tbis array of bowling alleys, ping pong tables, shuffle board courts, pool tables and archery equipment, we see members of the Hickory Bowling Team: Dorothy Sherrill, Iris Setzer, Everette Barger, Bernerd Bock, and Everette Hedrick. This team has been leading the league all season. Shelton Thomason, director of all the activities, has just come in and seems to be in a hurry to show us the swimming pool.

"Here we are at the swimming pool, which is the largest indoor pool in the state. Henrianna Anderson and Dorothy Bolick are at work perfecting high dives on the opposite end. Mr. Thomason has just told me that there is to be a water meet here in two weeks. We would like to stay here and watch these two perform, but as time grows shorter we must go on to the next stop. As you can see, we are now passing through the gymnasium, recognized as one of the best equipped of Western North Carolina.

"Our last visit is to Hickory High School, where tomorrow's leaders learn math and language. Well-known teachers and their subjects are: Foy Hefner, German; Wilma Brakefield, English; Erlene Bock, Spanish; Doris Cansler, Biology; Martha Kate Hartzoge, Algebra; Margie Rowe, Typing; Nellie Deal, Civics; Evelyn Webb, Algebra; Martha Seagle, History; Christine Walker, Geometry; Marilyn Setzer, Economics; Norma Whitener, Latin; Hazel Younce, Bookkeeping; and Harold Bishop, French. Junius Parks is the athletic coach here in the high school.

"Thus we come to an end, hoping that——"

Last Will and Testament

ARTICLE I

We, the Senior Class of Hickory High School, Hickory, North Carolina, being of sound mind and memories in this year one thousand nine hundred and forty-one do hereby make this our last will and testament.

ARTICLE II

To the faculty, we leave our sincere appreciation for their kind interest and help.

ARTICLE III

Upon the Juniors we reluctantly bestow our Senior rights and privileges, hoping that they will be able to use them half as well as we did.

ARTICLE IV

1940 Football Resume

SEPTEMBER 20. HICKORY vs. SHELBY (There)

Fighting gamely despite the loss of eight regulars, the Red Tornadoes dropped their opening game to the Shelby Lions. In the first period R. Camp carried a blocked punt over for Hickory's lone touchdown and Parks plunged for the extra point. Eslie Miller was the team's sparkplug with Camp, Walker, and Hay playing well in the line and "Bud" Lail and Thomason showing up in the backfield. Shelby 18, Hickory 7.

SEPTEMBER 27. HICKORY vs. MORGANTON (There)

Although they scored first on a recovered fumble and displayed brilliant offensive and defensive tactics, the Tornadoes bogged down under the passing, running, and blocking attack of two Morganton backs, Brandon and Leonard, to be overwhelmed 33-12. "Bud" Lail, scoring one touchdown, and Parks the other were outstanding in the backfield; while Camp, Miller and Hay shone in the line. (The entire team starred the first half, giving Morganton a margin of only one point, 13-12.)

OCTOBER 11. HICKORY vs. CHERRYVILLE (Here)

Entirely on the defensive and ragged at first, a stout-hearted Hickory eleven pulled a startling upset and defeated Cherryville 13-7. Late in the fourth quarter "Flash" Arndt, substitute end, caught "Bud" Lail's beautiful 20 yard pass to score. Lail then plunged for the tying point. Gene Miller intercepted an enemy pass on the 14; Parks picked up a first down, and "Bud" Lail ripped the line for a second touchdown and victory. Hamby, Camp, G. Miller, Walker, Parks, E. Miller, "Bud" Lail and Arndt starred.

OCTOBER 18. HICKORY vs. KANNAPOLIS (There)

Outplayed and outmaneuvered, the Tornadoes suffered a whitewashing at the hands of the Little Wonders of Kannapolis, 18-0. The passing combination of B. Lail and Walker, the defensive work of Hamby, the tackling of Eslie Miller, and the spectacular run by Jake Parks featured Hickory's attack.

OCTOBER 25. HICKORY vs. LENOIR (Here)

Passing, blocking, running, "Bud" Lail, stellar back, led an inspired Hickory team to its third successive victory over Lenoir. He passed to Ed Walker for the first touchdown and extra point, then intercepted a pass on his own 30 and raced 70 yards down the left side, behind beautiful blocking, to score the second standing up. F. Lail converted. Playing of the entire team thrilled a large homecoming crowd, but especially outstanding were B. Lail, Parks, Don Stafford, Eslie Miller, and John Gregory, in the lineup for the first time after a pre-season injury. Score: Hickory 14, Lenoir 0.

NOVEMBER 2. HICKORY vs. NEWTON (Here)

The Tornadoes nosed out their erstwhile foes, Newton, 6-0, when "Bud" Lail blocked a punt deep in Newton territory and Eslie Miller and Don Stafford caught the ball in the air, carrying it over the goal line together. Martin, the Devils' quarterback, was sensational in the nip-and-tuck contest because of his amazing punts. For Hickory, "Bud" and Fox Lail, Don Stafford, Eslie Miller, and Gregory were commended.

NOVEMBER 9. HICKORY vs. STATESVILLE (Here)

Close, fiercely contested every inch of the way, the game with Statesville proved the best of the season, with the undefeated Greyhounds winning 13-12. Aerial attacks staged by Gregory and B. Lail to F. Lail and Stafford netted Hickory's twelve points. Penalties at crucial moments marred play of both teams. Starring for the Tornadoes were Stafford, Walker, F. Lail, and Parks.

NOVEMBER 18. HICKORY vs. LINCOLNTON (Here)

Evenly matched, the Tornadoes and Wolves staged a mid-field classic, neither eleven getting closer than the 20 yard marker. Gregory's passing was good, and the fine-play of Stafford, Walker, G. Miller, and Eslie Miller was commendable. This game upset Lincolnton's chances of sharing the conference crown. Hickory 0, Lincolnton 0.

NOVEMBER 22. HICKORY vs. N. C. S. D. (Here)

The Tornadoes closed the home season with an easy 13-6 victory over a spirited N. C. S. D. team. "Bud" Lail scored both touchdowns, plunging for one and taking a short lateral from Stafford after Gregory had passed for the other. Parks scored the extra point. Gregory's passing to Walker high-lighted the rather slow contest. In addition, B. Lail and Parks looked best in the backfield; Eslie Miller and Stafford, in the line. Substitutes were used freely.

NOVEMBER 26. HICKORY vs. FOREST CITY (There)

The battlescarred Tornadoes bowed to a speedy Forest City squad in the final game of 1940 to the tune of 13-0. Parks and Gregory starred for Hickory in the backfield, while Camp displayed fine blocking and tackling in the line.

Winnie Lee-

I've enjoyed the sixth period together & I wish I could be here next year to have some more classes with you. Best of luck to a very cute girl

Gra

Winnie Lee,

It has really been fun being in History class with you this year & hope we have some classes together next year. I'll be seeing you next year.

Basketball Resume

December 12—The Red Tornadoes opened their season, suffering a defeat at the hands of the Lenoir Rhyne freshmen. 21-17.

December 13—Salisbury romped on Hickory for the Tornadoes' second straight defeat. Stafford scored 14 of Hickory's points. Score 52-24.

January 7—Hickory divided with the Red Devils from Newton: boys winning 24-21; girls losing 39-5. Stafford led the boys with 12.

January 10—Stafford made 11 points in defeating Morganton 34-22. Although Betty Foster hit 21, the Tornadettes lost 57-31.

January 14—Both teams defeated Lenoir. Tornadettes, led by Foster's 15 points, won 32-16. Six-foot seven center, Whitener, got 15 in piling up a 38-4 win.

January 17—Tornadettes were defeated 29-16 by Lincolnton, but boys won 35-10.

January 23—At Cliffside both boys and girls won. Boys' score 25-15; girls' 33-21.

January 28—Another double victory was scored over N. C. S. D. Boys won 31-24. Girls, led by Giles with 17 and Frye with 8, won 31-20.

January 31—The Tornadettes lost, 41-22, at the hands of Shelby; while the boys, led by Stafford's 21 points, won over the previously undefeated Shelby quintet, 41-29.

February 4—Giles and Freeman led the Hickory sextet to a 22-19 triumph over Lenoir. The Tornadoes, with 18 different men playing, won easily, 38-27.

February 7—Hickory took two more from N. C. S. D., girls winning 29-19 behind Freeman and Foster; and the boys downing a scrappy team, 38-27.

February 11—The girls dropped behind 34-20, while the Tornadoes handed Bessemer City their first defeat, 35-20. Stafford made 14.

February 12—The Faculty game was a riot. Foster scored 15 for the girls in setting back the teachers, who were led by Fritz with 10; score 27-18. Scarborough and Hernandez with 14 and 12 respectively, led the men to a close win over the Tornado B squad, 44-42. Sigmon had 14 for B team.

February 14—In games with Morganton, Tornadoes took another easily, 33-14. Tornadettes were defeated decisively, 42-19.

February 17—The Tornadoes defeated the Conference defending champions, Marion, 44-36. Stafford had 19, Whitener 14. Girls also won. 29-18.

February 18—Girls bowed to Lincolnton, 51-18. Boys won, 38-28, to extend their conference rating to 13 wins against no losses.

February 20—Bessemer City was defeated in an exciting double-header. Tornadoes 34—Bessemer City 25; Tornadettes 35—Bessemer City 29.

February 21—Hickory divided games with Newton. Tornadoes 33—Newton 22; Newton 41—Tornadettes 17.

February 28—First conference loss for boys in 16 starts. Marion 40—Tornadoes 38; Tornadettes 28—Marion 15.

March 4—Tornadoes won over Cliffside, 39-26; Girls lost 22-20.

March 7—Two fighting Hickory teams closed their conference season with two disheartening defeats at the hands of Shelby. Shelby 36—Tornadoes 32; Shelby 34—Tornadettes 25.

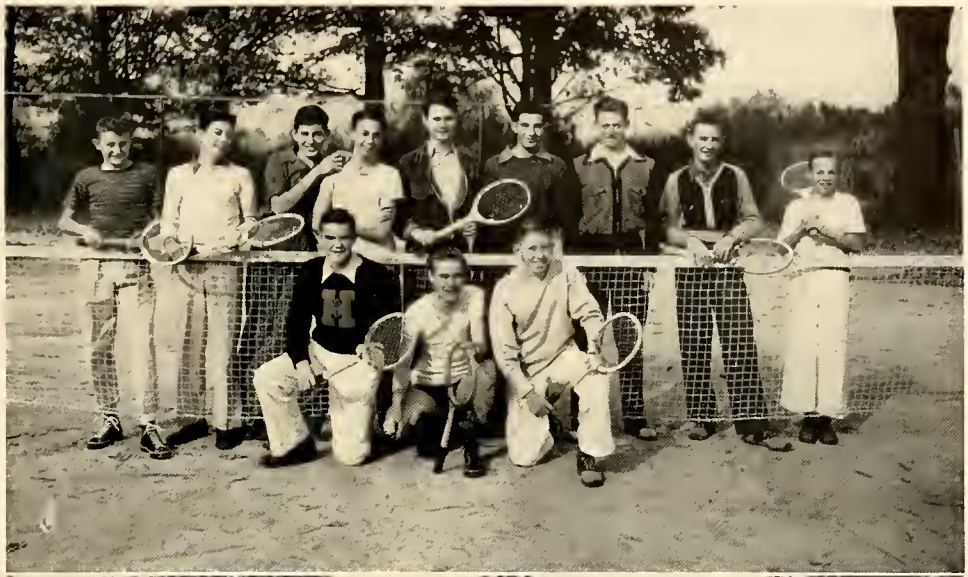

The Red Tornadoes, with a total of 16 wins against 2 losses, claimed the Western Conference championship. In the Valdese Gold Medal Basketball Tournament, the Hickory boys won out by defeating Old Fort, Piedmont, Fallston, and Hollis. Everyone on the team played well, and Hay, Whitener, and Walker were selected for the All-Tournament team.

for Frances Pope

May 5, 1941

Dear Sue,

For about seven years I have had the opportunity of being associated with you — one of the sweetest girls I know — in school and church. I hope these years have been as pleasant for you as they have been for me. Remember all the good times we used to have in grammar school along with the good ones in high school. I will never forget our trips to Lincolnton, will you? We sure had a swell time! especially our ride down there on the old bus!

Sue, I wish for you in the future everything that a sweet girl deserves. After finishing high school, as you go into nursing, as you wish, may all the blessings in the world be showered upon you and may you remember the words of him who said, "I can do all things through Christ which strengthens me." Remember these words and you are certain to succeed within your own heart and in aiding others.

Lots of Love and Luck, Frances Pope

My Dear Sue;

Just think, just one more year of school friendship with us, - that is if we graduate then!!! But I certainly hope that that will not end our friendship and if I have anything to do with it, I know it will not.

Oh well lets not talk about that now. Sue, do you remember the grand ole' Green Park days. I certainly do. They will never leave my mind as long as I live. I still love them and always will. It almost makes me cry when I think I will never expect to live them over again. But we must not brood over them not. Our objects in life is to make our future valuable in order to have a better life afterwards.

Sue, I don't believe I have another friend any sweeter than you. You have been wonderful to me and all the rest of the girls.

Sue, I should like to say something - not about you or me - but about one of the persons who is probably your best friend and that is your mother. She is one of the sweetest and kindest mothers I know of. That is one of the reasons I like to come to see you although I haven't ever been to see you and stayed as long as I should like. But really I'm coming sometime just to talk to your mother because I really enjoy talking to her. And Sue, that goes for you too. I don't know what I would have done all these years without you to tell my troubles to and of course my joys because I have had my share of them too.

Love to a real friend,
Helen Trautman

Pinkie N.

Dearest Winnie (smartest gal I have ever had)

Well our high school career is nearly over! Lo! Why! why does life fly by so fast? It seems only yesterday that we stood on your back porch and cried because you missed the honor roll by one point thus knocking us out of the trip to New York. Well Anyway we went to Charleston Honest Winnie I had a swell time! If it hadn't been for those dead gum! (Eklads) I could have ridden in peace! Oh yes I mustn't forget the "banana pudding". I'm still waiting for the one you promised me on my Birthday. If it hadn't for your mother we would have starved that afternoon. We were all hungry as you saw.

Winnie you have the best, and swellest, mother and daddy. Honest Mrs Black is so sweet. And your daddy too. He's so funny! I'd rather "pick" at him than eat! Remind him I'm still living. He cause I ate so much I to be fifteen. Tell him I'm ating more than ever.

one in a million! I'm suppos this to you. Don't get by the ! Well Winnie may you with good luck. We have to small person success becau you on to have plenty. Anyway we wishing you truckloads of joy, happiness, success
